POISONED BY WHISKEY.

Adams Express Employees Thought They Were Taking it Straight.

(Continued.) O. May 13.—As a result of drinking what they thought was whiskey, five men employed at the Adams express warehouse in this city were poisoned tonight, one dying shortly after arriving at the hospital. The other four men are in a serious condition. A bottle was received from Memphis tonight addressed to Kate Nobbe in this city. In handling the bottle, J. B. Flicker discovered a leak and remarked, "this is a nice bottle of whiskey, and too good to let go to waste." One of the men procured a cup and each took a drink. They were violently ill in a few moments and were rushed to the city hospital. One died on arriving there, while the others, Geo. Eberle, Louis Burbank, and Wm. Daly, are reported in serious condition. When seen tonight, Mrs. Nobbe said, "I can't say what the bottle contained, but it was undoubtedly sent by a woman who is employed by a relative of mine in Memphis. He visited me three weeks ago, and since that time I have been receiving packages and obscene letters from Memphis. It is jealousy on her part."

Mrs. Nobbe is employed at the Honing hotel here. It was found that the bottle contained arsenic and whiskey. Wm. Daly and Louis Burbank, Adams express company employees, who were poisoned last night along with three others, who drank poisoned whiskey from a bottle addressed to Mrs. Kate Nobbe, of this city, and which became broken before delivery, are in the city hospital today, in a quite serious condition. Benjamin Flicker, another one, died last night upon reaching the hospital. The others are still suffering though not expected to die.

MANY MINERS ARE GOING OUT.

Since Close of Anthracite Strike They Have Not Secured Employment.

Pittsburgh, Pa. May 14.—Many of the miners who since the recent strike, have not secured employment are leaving for the coal fields. Two carloads of English speaking miners from New Philadelphia,

BODY EXHUMED AND MARKS FOUND.

Physicians Will Make Close Examinations to Ascertain Whether Caused by Choking or Blows. Body Well Preserved.

Laramie, O. May 14.—The remains of a woman were exhumed at a Catholic cemetery one mile north of Lima today, in order to settle the question raised as to whether the woman had been choked or strangled with a stone in the neck. The body was found to be well preserved. Discolorations were found on the right wrist and upon the neck, a dark ring beneath the right eye. After a conference the physicians decided to make openings in the neck and beneath the eye, to discover if possible whether these marks were caused by choking or blows before death or by the action of impeded blood drainage thereafter. At the conclusion of the examination coroner French said that the marks found were the same he had seen at the post mortem, but that at this time it was impossible to say how they had been caused. Coroner French said he was not prepared to say that he would reopen the inquest. He stated that his decision would be announced later. Detective Mintz at whose request the body was exhumed, said: "I more than ever believe, that the girl was choked insensible, if not dead before she was struck with the stone."

VICTORY OF MANILA BAY

Commemorated by Dedication of a Monument at San Francisco.

San Francisco, Cal., May 14.—President Roosevelt participated in the dedication of the magnificent monument erected in commemoration of the victory of the American Navy at Manila. The monument consists of a high arch of white California granite, surmounted by a bronze figure of victory, holding in one outstretched hand, a wreath, and in the other a trident. The president was escorted from the hotel to Union square, by Marines, of the warship in the harbor. On the and from which he delivered an address to the officers of the warship. San Francisco, May 14.—The British squadron, under the command of Admiral Prince Phelan presented the monument to the city of San Francisco, and it was briefly accepted by Mayor Schmidt, on behalf of the municipality. President Roosevelt dwelt on the necessity of preparing ships, armaments and men for the navy. He urged practical work at sea, particularly in marksmanship, saying: "Remember that the shots that count in war, are the ones that hit." The president was then driven to the United States transport dock, whence the party proceeded to Berkeley to take part in the commencement exercises at the University of California. Later, President Roosevelt went to Oakland, where the officers had arranged to give him a cordial greeting.

The central arch has on either side a colonnade extending out about 50 feet, there being six columns on each side.

This is concave as one looks at it from the west side. On each side of the passageway, which is about 10 feet wide by 18 feet high, are placed two bronze tablets, containing the names of the martyrs. Above the archway there are two granite tablets, bearing appropriate inscriptions. The charge to Prof. E. I. ## PRINTER

Personal Spun a Story to the Governor

That Won Him Pardon From the Authorities For Alleged Crime Committed.

Boston, Mass., May 14.—Eugene Moriarty, a youthful printer serving a long sentence at Charlestown, literally talked his way to pardon today, on the occasion of the annual visit of the governor and council of the state prison. Four years ago, Moriarty was accused of assault upon a woman in Fall River, and her story being partially corroborated, he was convicted. During the progress of his trial, his lawyers became involved in serious trouble with the presiding justice with the result that the charge of the jury was practically an order to convict. An appeal to the higher court on questions of law failed to aid and the judge imposed a twelve-year sentence. Today, when the Governor and council were going through the prison workshop, Moriarty asked permission to present a petition for pardon, alleging that he was innocent of the crime of which he was convicted. The permission was granted, as it always is in such cases. Moriarty asked the governor for clemency.

"Of course, you're innocent," laughed Governor Bates. "Yes, sir, of everything save that of being foolish enough to drink. I never committed the crime of which I stand convicted." Then, warming to his task, he proceeded to sketch the facts in his case, clearly but rapidly, and bringing out into sharp relief those facts which seem to bear out his contentions. "What do you know of the case?" asked the governor, of David F. Slade, a member from Moriarty's home. "Just this, that there was grave doubts of this man's guilt when he was convicted, which have grown with time. Personally I think him innocent."

A session of the council was called then and there, the governor recommended the pardon of Moriarty, the council approved it by an unanimous vote, and a few hours later, Moriarty was on his way home, a free man, the first convict ever to win his freedom in this state.

SUSPICIOUS CIRCUMSTANCES

Surrounding the Abandonment of Vera Cruz III Which Stranded Off Coast of North Carolina, May 12.

Washington, May 14.—Capt. Slamm, of the Revenue Cutter Bontwell, which went to the relief of the passengers and crew of the Vera Cruz III, which stranded on the 12th instant, on dry point shoal, North Carolina has made a preliminary report to Capt. Shoemaker, chief of the Revenue Cutter service.

Captain Slamm, says that on his arrival at the wreck, he found that the master of the Vera Cruz had left his vessel with all his personal effects and instruments of navigation in the keeping of a "friend and passenger," to go to Wilmington, N. C., to secure funds with which to pay for the transportation of the passengers to New Bedford, Mass., the destination of his vessel.

All of the ships papers including the passenger list were turned over to the collector of customs at New Berne, while the other passengers and crew were taken. The vessels, captain Slamm says, was practically abandoned by her crew. As near as could be learned, the passenger list of the Vera Cruz called for 240 persons, while the keeper of the life saving station is reported to have landed 291 exclusive of the bark's crew. This fact together with the circumstances of the vessel being brought for fresh water into dangerous harbor, where she grounded, the captain says appears suspicious. The vessel is embedded in the sand and probably will be abandoned. Thirty-five barrels of whale oil comprise her cargo.

COCKTAILS AND FLATTERY

Are Evils the Professional Woman Should Shun Says Grace Noble, the Strong Minded Play House Manager.

Chicago, May 14.—"Cocktails, men and flattery, are the three evils that professional women must shun just as completely as the ambitious man must turn his back against wine, women and song." She is susceptible to them all, and each is a barrier to success.

This declaration has been made by Miss Grace Noble, who is to manage a New York play house, next year, at a meeting of Hullhouse Woman's club yesterday. Miss Noble declared that society women are victims of the cocktail as often as professional women.

"But, she declared, the society woman has not a career to ruin. She may rest at home and recuperate, while the professional woman has to continue with her work, no matter how unlit her mind is for it."

Miss Noble declared that success to the professional woman entailed greater privation, longer study and more suffering and disappointment, than to the professional man.

TRINITY

Chapter O. E. S. Entertain Visiting Members.

Large Delegation From LaFayette Witnessed Initiation and Inspection of Officers.

Last evening Trinity Chapter, O. E.
 S. again extended hospitality to a visiting chapter, the LaFayette, of LaFayette, Ohio, the following members being in attendance from there: Mr. and Mrs. Durbin, Mr. and Mrs. Helser, Mrs. Sager, Mrs. Nettie Biteman, Mrs. Maggie Biteman, Miss Blanche Kinsey, Miss Rhya Maus, Mrs. Hannah Maus, Mrs. Grace Myers, Mrs.
 Mary Watt, Mrs. Mollie Kershaw, Mrs.
 Daisy Watt, Mrs. Mary Urick, Mrs.
 Jennie Knoble, Mrs. Allie Barber, Mrs.
 Ed Holman and Mrs. Charles Holman.
 Most of the ladies came over in a picnic wagon, and all went to the six o'clock dinner of several excellent courses, served in the banquet hall, at beautifully appointed tables set in the form of a star with each point decorated in the color of the point, with fern and flowers and garlands of ribbon overhead. The members of Trinity Chapter sat down with their guests, and after the feast repaired to the temple where the chapter was opened in regular form. Among those in attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. D.
 Davis and Miss Fox of Concordia Chapter 57 of Nebraska. Mrs. Bowman was the candidate who was initiated, and then was conducted through the floral drill, receiving American beauties and other choice flowers until her hands were full.

Then followed the formal inspection of the chapter, by the deputy grand matron, Mrs. S. A. Hagerman, of Dunkirk.

During the social session following, the handsome pillow was brought forth, and the visiting grand officer drew the number of the fortunate winner. This was ticket No. 309 belonging to Mrs. Charles Carr, who can have the pillow, by calling for it at the home of Mrs. Louis Fall, 516 west Spring street, and presenting her duplicate ticket, within the next two weeks.

THE IDLER.

To the very end the partnership of Casterline & Corthell, known particularly to oil men all over the eastern and Ohio and Indiana oil fields was one of the most remarkable on record.
 While both partners were alive and well they conducted their affairs in a manner, perhaps unknown to any other partnership. What one did was all right to the other. If one wanted money he was asked no questions, but got it. So it was with the other.

Messrs. Casterline & Corthell never had disputes. They found no fault with each other and rarely if ever consulted each other in matters pertaining to their business. They enjoyed the most implicit confidence in each other and so they went on conducting a business which grew in magnitude until it became one of the most substantial of the many of its kind in the northwest.

When Clinton S. Corthell realized that he was near death's door, he summoned his partner, Mr. Casterline and the affairs of the partnership were discussed. Then an agreement was entered into which culminated in the probate court today when Mr. Casterline purchased the Corthell interests, paying therefore the sum of $160,596.89. This is what he agreed to do when he chatted with Mr. Corthell on the 30th of last March and that is what he did.

Mr. Corthell's interest in the partnership of Casterline & Corthell over and above the payment of all partnership debts, was $161,375.39.—Findlay Courier.

Uncles Joe and John.

J. E. De Voe and J. H. De Turk, of 740 Greenlawn avenue, are beaming with smiles on account of information received from Oil City, which announces that they are now uncles, and they are anxiously looking forward to the day when they can go to see papa Maxwell's boy. The message received from Mrs. De Voe, who is in Oil City visiting her sister, the proud mother, read something like this:

"Just arrived—A lively little boy baby who has lots of black hair. Carrie and baby are doing nicely."

"Blind Robins" for Bait.

Andy Graham and William Wemmer went to McBeth's fishing, this afternoon and Dr. Stueber kindly volunteered to provide them with a bucket of minnows for bass bait. They arrived at the lake in due time, prepared their hooks, lines, and fishing rods and then opened the minnow bucket and found it to contain about two dozen dried herrings.

RECITAL

At German Reformed Church
 a Grand Success.

For Two Hours a Carefully Arranged Program Held the Audience.

The German Reformed church, on west Wayne street, was filled last night with an audience of music loving people, who listened to a program of rare merit, which began with an organ voluntary, by Prof. H. B. Adams, who was followed by a mixed chorus of twenty-five voices under the leadership of Mr. Henry Delsel, which rendered "Psalm 84," in a manner that showed careful and intelligent training.

Prof. Sholz, who is comparatively a recent addition to the music circles of this city, proved himself master of the violin. His selections, "Elegie," and "Berceuse," were classical, and his rendition of them was fine, both in technique and expression. Later in the program, he played a selection from Tannhauser, which met with merited encore. He had for his accompanist, Miss Hentze, who has a beautiful touch, and a keen sense of expression.

The Misses Flammer sang "The Nightingale," accompanied by Mrs. Dr.
 Fred Steuber. The young ladies were in excellent voice, and captivated the audience, who asked an encore, but were denied it.

A male chorus of fifteen voices under the direction of Herr Delsel, rendered "Hallelujah, Praise the Lord," but as usual, the Knaben were not as good as the Madchen.

Miss Ivy Robinson, whose reputation for reading is established, artistically gave "The Absolution."

Prof. Belling, of Toledo, whose musical career has brought him in close touch with all the masters of Europe, and who is now teaching the piano, a portion of his time in this city, played a selection from Brahms, and in response to an earnest encore, delighted his hearers with "Idylls" by McDowell.

Mr. Henry Delsel, whose voice is always a favorite was greeted with applause on his appearance, and to the great pleasure of all, he sang that beautiful tenor solo "The Place Where We Met," accompanied by his son William.

A quartette consisting of Mrs. Henry Wemmer, Miss Lavina Flammer, Mr. F. C. Herold, and Mr. Henry Snook gave one of the sweetest numbers on the programme "Come Where The Lilies Bloom." Miss Loretta Kissel presided at the piano.

Miss Ethel Heffner, who is always in demand because of her own peculiarity, and the brilliancy of her soprano voice, sang "The Lord is My Light and was given an encore. She was accompanied by her sister.

The program closed with the "Song of the Vikings," by the mixed chorus.

TIME

Will Be Changed
May 24.

New Schedule

Arranged For Trains on Ft. Wayne Division.

Pennsylvania Is Announced to Have Control of Hartford Railway.

Items of Interest Gathered About Different Lines Which Make Lima Famous. Erie Telegraphers Objecting.

The new spring time card of the Pennsylvania, will go into effect May 24th.

It is proposed in the new schedule to give greater facilities from the east to Chicago. Heretofore all this business has been carried on the Pennsylvania limited and on account of the steady increase in the growth of traffic the necessity of more adequate service has been felt. Working under these conditions the officials of the Pennsylvania in altering the present schedule have arranged to run the limited and the Atlantic express known as train 21 in two sections. The first section of the limited will leave New York at the same time as now and run through to Chicago while the second section will start an hour later. The same will be true of the extra section of train 21. On the eastbound trip trains 2 and 20 will be run in two sections each.

On this division there will be a privately no addition to the train service but a complete revision of the local train service can be expected.

Along All Lines

The Huntington News is responsible for the statement that several Erie engines have been set back to firing because of a falling off in the business of the road.

Frank L. Barthold of the L. E. and W. service left here yesterday morning as a delegate from Lima lodge of B. R. T. to the convention of that order that will be held in Denver.

James F. Quigley of Indianapolis, chief of detectives for the L. E. & W. was in the city yesterday.

Traveling passenger agent W. P.
Carter of the L. E. & W. went to Dayton last evening.

Frank Barthold left for Chicago to attend the convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Trainmen. Mr.
Barthold who is employed by the L.
E. & W. will represent Lima Lodge No. 200.

Richard Hartley a brakeman on the Cleveland railroad who has been spending a few days in Lima stepped off the platform at the C. H. & D. depot last night while waiting for a train and sprained his ankle so badly that he had to remain over.

The plot of ground south of the Pennsylvania tracks at the depot which heretofore has been used as a common dumping ground and a storage for surplus railroad material has been cleaned up and is being leveled for sodding. The improvement is a noticeable one.

Agent Frank Burkhardt of the C.
H. & D. and L. E. & W. left yesterday for a two weeks trip through the west. During his absence night agent Marshall Wolf will attend to the day duties.

Five special trains have passed over the Pennsylvania railroad westward bound in the last 24 hours. Two were run yesterday morning as extra No. 5, three followed No. 9 in the afternoon, and two more as extra No. 5 this morning. The trains carried delegates to the Presbyterian general assembly at San Francisco.

Foreman in the Erie shops, at Huntington are now paid straight monthly salaries the general foreman receiving $10, and the others from $65 to $90. The difference is not much more in point of gain than under the old schedule at so much per hour, before the strike.

The second advertising car, belonging to the Wallace Bros. circus, was brought in over the C. H. & D. and the remaining bill boards are being covered with the big posters.

Agent Wolf of the C. H. & D., expects big business Sunday, when the first excursion will be run to Toledo.
The dryness of Lima will be an inducement for some who prefer lake water to that which flows from the Lima reservoir.

A special train on the Pennsylvania which ran as second section of No. 21, carried a large number of delegates, bound for Pittsburg, to attend the biennial meeting of the order of railway conductors which is in session at Pittsburg.

Supt. Corey, of the motive power department of the C. H. & D., spent yesterday in Cincinnati.

W. H. Sloat, master mechanic of the C. H. & D., at Dayton, was in this city on business yesterday.

Telegraphic information from Boston says: The Pennsylvania railroad has at last absorbed the New York, New Haven & Hartford railway, according to a prominent official of the latter company. The process has been under way for many months, and the resignation of First Vice President Merrill a few days ago, at the Pennsylvania's behest, was to make room for a Pittsburg man who will strengthen the consolidated policy and harmonize it with the Pennsylvania.

The Pennsy has also secretly acquired two fine wharf properties on Atlantic avenue and a step across Federal street from the big south station.
This will make the ocean passenger terminus a backyard affair, and is apart from the vast system of dock-age begun by the Pennsylvania some time ago.

R. R.—

Chicago & Erie operators held a meeting in Huntington, Indiana, to sign a petition which they sent Erie officials re-monstrating against the order that had been issued requiring all operators to wear regulation uniforms. The order, operators claim is an imposition as they would be required to buy two suits a year one for summer wear and the other for winter use. Their pay is rather small and the extra expense of buying new uniforms would more than offset the slight increase recently granted to them. A badge or cap they think would answer just as well especially to those operators located at flag stations and block towers.

General Supt. Turner Stopped Over in Lima in His Private Car and Inquired Into the Situation

General Superintendent Turner came up from Cincinnati in his private car today and while here learned of the situation which had brought about by the bulletin in reference to Sunday hours for the car men. He satisfied himself that there was no serious difficulty likely to arise and that the local officials and the men concerned were capable of arriving at an understanding without having the case taken up to the higher officers.

MEN'S SPRING SUITS.

Price is one thing—style is another—Quality is the main thing.
When you are about to invest in a new suit of clothes, remember that. For no matter how attractive a suit may look when new—no matter how temptingly low the price may seem—if the suit is not thoroughly good, honestly made from the first stitch to the last button hole—there can be no real satisfaction. We confine ourselves absolutely to the sort of clothing that's made as good as clothing can be made.

For this season the list is particularly brilliant. We do not think as good values have ever been offered in Lima.

For $7.50

The best for the money we have shown. A large assortment of styles and patterns to make a selection from. Good tailoring—good as anybody gives for twice the money.

For $10

You can count absolutely upon getting as good a suit in every particular as other stores around are selling for $15.
Smart three and four button suits. The patterns are all good.

For $15

Every bit as good as made to order for $25. All sorts of cloths and patterns.
A hundred styles to select from. The coats are half lined and full lined, hand padded collars and lapels, hand made buttonholes, which means the fit will stay and the shape will hold.

For $20

You have no tailor to bother with—slip right into a suit, see how it feels, how it looks, how it fits. Why pay other people thirty dollars for a suit not one whit better? You will find these suits full of style, made from the choicest fabrics and the most satisfactory trimmings.

Latest Novelties in Children's Suits $1 to $8.

COLLEGE EDUCATION

Was the Theme of the Inaugural Address of Oberlin's New President.

Oberlin, May 14.—The inauguration of Henry C. King, D. D., as president of Oberlin college, occurred yesterday. The inaugural procession was the most marked feature of the ceremonies. The procession consisted of about three thousand persons, of whom nearly half were students.

The presidency was formally transferred to Mr. King by Hon. J. G. W. Cowles, of Cleveland, and accepted by the new incumbent. Addresses were delivered by Dean Bosworth, President W. G. Frost, of Berea College, Ky., D. B. Cooper, of the senior class, and President Tucker, of Dartmouth College.

"The primacy of the person in college education" was the theme of the inaugural address of the new president, Henry Churchill King, D. D. In part he said concerning the agitated relations of the common school, the high school, the college and the university:

"Our difficulties begin when we try to define more narrowly just what is to be included in our first group of schools, exactly what education is indispensable that one may become a useful member of society. Virtually we seem to have decided that indispensable education is covered in our primary and grammar grades; for the majority do not go further, and compulsory education does not require more. And yet with practical unanimity, the United States have decided that the state is justified in furnishing, and, indeed, is bound to furnish, that smaller number of its children who are willing and able to take further schooling, opportunities to continue for three or four years longer in studies of so-called 'secondary' grades.

"The state can justify this procedure only upon the ground that such further study prepares still better for citizenship, and that it is of value to the state that even a much smaller number should have this better preparation; or upon the practical ground that the secondary education furnishes the knowledge and training a certain extent, no doubt, the latter is true and ought to be true. The best preparation that organized education can give for entering wisely and unselfishly into the complex personal relations of life, and for furthering unselfishly and efficiently social progress—just that is the function of college education. As distinguished from the elementary and secondary school, it has no primary reference to the earning of a living, or to the performance of some specific task; it faces the problem of living in a much broader and more thorough-going fashion; it does not specially aim or expect to reach all, but seeks to train a comparatively small self-selected number who shall be the social leaven of the nation.

Dean Edward I. Bosworth, D. D., spoke for the faculty of the college partly as follows:

"The situation which finds its recognition today, is not an arbitrary creation, but the result of a growth. For twenty-five years, in the logic of event the premises have been forming for the conclusion that we recognize today. None have had better opportunities to see this than those for whom I speak—the faculty of Oberlin college. This being so, no more significant thing can be said than that upon this glad day, not only in appearance, but in heart, the faculty of Oberlin College rejoices. We who have known President King, best in all these years, and who have seen him repeatedly at the points where disillusion is likely to be experienced, if at all, we are the ones who have unwavering confidence in him, and have eagerly anticipated this day. Those who have worked with him in the close relationships, which often breed petty jealousies, are the ones whose satisfaction is most sincere.

"We have a confidence, grounded in long experience, that under his leadership, we shall be able to realize a true ideal of Christian education.

C. Cook. They waived examination and were bound over to the common pleas court. They were returned to the Norwalk jail at 11 o'clock.

Richard Peteford and son William, at whose house Stratton, Martin and Kimbro boarded in Fremont, were taken into custody, east of Norwalk, this morning by Fremont officers, on the charge of being implicated in the shooting at Fremont, Saturday night. The Petefords who were at Oberlin, were telephoned to, to meet the officers at Norwalk, and were on their way here when met by the officers. They quietly submitted to arrest, and were taken to Bellevue for a preliminary examination before Justice Cook.

ten and novel and effective situations added. The present prominence of the Czar's government in the Chinese business tends to arouse interest in plays dealing with Russian military life, and this of itself, will doubtless assure large audiences during the coming engagement. The stage setting of the piece is magnificent, the story absorbing and pathetic, and the comedy plentiful and varied. This is what the advance agent says, but from other and authentic sources, it is learned that the play is really meritorious and far superior to the average production of the kind.

HONOR,

Twice, Conferred
on Lima

By Ohio Elks

In Their Annual Session at Columbus.

This City Chosen For Next Meeting Which Will Be Held in May, 1904,

And Bro. J. M. Arndt, Delegate From Lima Lodge, No. 162, Elected Treasurer of Ohio Association.

Bro. Joseph M. Arndt for Treasurer of the Ohio Association and Lima for the meeting place in 1904 were the honors conferred upon Lima Lodge No. 162, B. P. O. E., by the Ohio Elks in their annual session at Columbus yesterday afternoon. Bro. Arndt was the delegate representing Lima Lodge in the convention and Bro. James B. Lounson was sergeant at arms in the convention. The next annual meeting will be held in Lima on May 25, next year. Bro. Arndt and Bro. Lounson returned home today.

During the session yesterday afternoon the convention decided to make the Ohio association a permanent or the Ohio association a permanent organization in the place of organizing an Ohio state grand lodge. The following state officials were elected: President, Ed. H. Archer, of Columbus; vice president, Thomas Trainer, of Mansfield; secretary, George M. Harvey, of Steubenville; treasurer, Joseph M. Arndt, of Lima.

Executive committee—E. M. P. Bristow, of Newark; E. C. Turner, of Columbus; F. A. Vost, of Massillon; C. F. Smith, of Salem; and J. G. Murray, of Cleveland.

The association endorsed Cincinnati as the meeting place of the Grand Lodge next year and endorsed Samuel Needs, of Cleveland, for Grand Lodge treasurer, subject to the decision of the Grand Lodge which meets in Baltimore this summer.

One of the most enjoyable features of the Columbus meeting was a social session held at the Columbus Elks temple last night, during the progress of which, Bro. Arndt made a very fitting address thanking the association for the honors conferred upon Lima and Lima Lodge. During the rendition of the formal program of the social session a very eloquent and impressive address was delivered by the Hon. John J. Lentz, who responded to the toast "Fidelity." The address is said to have been one of the most beautiful creations in oratory ever heard in Columbus.

SPECIAL

Train on C. H. & D. Cannot Be Considered

But a Half Rate Will Catch a Number of People From Lima.

The idea of securing a special train over the C. H. & D. to Chillicothe for the purpose of carrying a delegation to the state centennial will have to be abandoned, if the word received by the local agent is final. The matter was taken up with Mr. Winans, who, in turn, referred it to General Passenger Agent Edwards. The verdict is that, owing to an agreement entered into by the roads throughout the state, the rate to Chillicothe, shall not be less than one half fare. In this agreement, special trains at a reduced rate were barred.

The special train from Lima, which it was believed could be arranged, would have been liberally patronized, as at least 100 had expressed their intention of going as a representative body from the oil metropolis, and even under the present arrangement, fully half that number will attend the big celebration, leaving here on the 5:30 train next Wednesday. There are a dozen or more former Ross county residents living in Lima, and all are counting on taking advantage of this opportunity to visit their old home.

TOY

Had Forgotten the Combination

And an Expert

Was Brought Here From Toledo.

Chief Engineer Gamble's Records Were Finally Rescued.

Attorney General Sheets Stands Pat on His Opinion in Regard to the Local Health Office Muddle.

Emil Grah needed the money. After Walter Toy was elected city civil engineer, he resurrected an old safe from the mayor's office, and paid $15 or $20 to have it placed in condition for use. He kept the most valuable records of the city's engineering department in the safe, and also kept the combination.

When Toy's official head was baled by the new anti-Hall board of public service, and Bob Gamble was elected chief engineer, Bob took possession of the safe, along with the other effects of the engineering department, nothing escaping therefrom except all republicans of Hall-Hanna complexion, and the combination to the safe. Toy left the safe intact and unlocked, and Bob appropriated it to use but was careful not to lock it, because Toy had neglected to leave the combination behind him when he "hiked."

Somebody locked the safe. The Board of Public Service wanted the records, and Bob couldn't deliver them. He appealed to Toy, but—Sacramento!

Toy had "forgotten" the combination.

Emil Grah, a safe-lock expert, was summoned from Toledo. He came yesterday afternoon, worked about 15 minutes, presented Bob with a new combination, and the city with a bill for $25.

Well, maybe Emil needs the money. The city doesn't.

Sheets "Stands Pat." The Board of Health will have the health officer muddle to wrangle over at its meeting tonight.

Attorney D. C. Henderson, representing Dr. Matthews, whom the Board attempted to depose, and city solicitor H. O. Bentley, representing the Board and Dr. Jones, whom the Board attempted to install in the office, were both callers at the office of attorney general Sheets, in Columbus, yesterday. The attorney general "stood pat" on his opinion that Dr. Matthew's should hold over in the office of health officer, unless removed for cause, and Smith M. Bennett, the special counsel in the attorney general's office, seconded the motion.

PUT

All of the Gang on Trial.

Object Lesson

Which Youths of Lima Should Heed

Offered by the Trial Which is Being Conducted in Court Today.

Five Members of the Skinner Gang Plead Not Guilty to Breaking Into a Sealed Car on the L. E. & W.

The scene at the court house this morning is one which suggests a study of the juvenile situation in at least one section of the city.

In a semi-circle, flanked by attorneys representing the defendants, sat five representatives of what has become commonly known as the Skinner gang, or "dirty dozen." The lads referred to are Ed Newland, Glen DeLong, Alonzo Hall, John Donaher and Martin Painter. They are represented by attorney Black, of Kenton; Sprague and Lippincott and W. H. Leete.

The five boys, including several others, were up before the grand jury, charged with having broken the seal of a Lake Erie and Western car, and taking merchandise belonging to shippers. Ed Newland turned states evidence, when he was arraigned before the mayor, but has since changed his plea to "not guilty," and is standing trial. The boys live in the neighborhood of Reece and St. Johns avenue, in south Lima, and have long been considered a bad lot.

One of the principal witnesses is Mr. Stell, who testified that both he and his son saw the boys break into the car, and come out with several boxes of pretzels. Throats were made at that time that if Stell told on them they would get even, but the threat didn't have the effect intended, if Stell's story is true. The entire bunch is being tried at one sitting.

Last For Ten Years.

Prophet and Eastman applied this morning for a divorce for Almada Huffer, from Charles Huffer, and the action was only recorded. They were married in Lima, February 4, 1892, and have one son, 10 years of age. Association with unchaste women and abandonment without making provision for the plaintiff and child, are the charges made. Custody of the boy is asked for in addition to the application for divorce.

Injunction Asked For.

There is a situation out in Auglaize township, which the court has been called upon to investigate, and settle. It has to do with the locating of a ditch which passes through a section of territory in Auglaize, and one of the parties particularly interested is Wm. H. Leatherman through whose farm the ditch passes.

Application was made some time ago for its location and the county engineer placed it according to the needs of the premises. It was a tile ditch, but after the trench was dug and later filled, it proved inadequate for the purpose and engineer Gamble was sent out to investigate the difficulty. He was able to prove, from a scientific standpoint, that the ditch would not do, and preparations were made to change it according to the demands.

It has since come to light that Wm. H. Leatherman, among others was unwilling to have his farm trampled over after seed had been sown, and he has brought his grievance into court, engaging Motter, Mackenzie and Weddock to argue an application for an injunction. The petition names the contractors employed to do the new work, the county commissioners and the county engineer as defendants.
